

Mr. Mayer from the committee on judicial proceedings to which was recommitted the bill entitled, an act to regulate proceedings against corporations reported that the committee had had said bill again under consideration and had directed him to report in lieu of said bill a bill entitled, an act to regulate proceedings against corporations.

Which was read the first time.

On motion of Mr. Mayer, the bill entitled, an act to divorce Peter Kamp of the city of Baltimore from his wife Amelia Kamp, was taken up for consideration.

The amendment heretofore reported, was read the second time and the question was put, Will the senate assent to said amendment.

It was determined in the negative.

The bill was then read the second, and on motion of Mr. Mayer was being read the third time, when

On motion of Mr. Dennis, it was ordered to lie on the table:

The Senate adjourned until to-morrow morning 9 o'clock.

TUESDAY, March 19th, 1833.

The Senate met. Present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

Mr. Pigman from the committee to which was referred the bill entitled, an act for the re-assessment and revaluation of the real and personal property in Prince George's county, reported favorably thereon.

It was read the second time.

Mr. Morris from the committee to which was referred the bill entitled, an act providing for the appointment of lime inspectors for the city of Baltimore, and prescribing their duties, reported favorably thereon.

It was read the second and by special order the third time, and amended on motion of Mr. Morris, as follows:

In the 5th line of the 12th section, strike out the
